

One Last SUMMER Getaway!

Bid the dog days farewell with a jaunt to one of these celeb-approved vacation destinations BY RACHEL WALLACE

The Montauk Lighthouse

East Hampton, NY

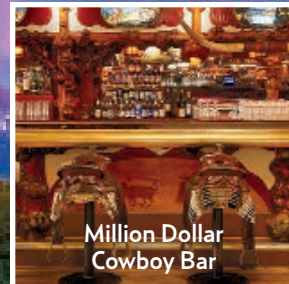

THE HAMPTONS, NEW YORK

» When the stars need a break from the Big Apple, they head "out east" to this stretch of upscale hamlets favored by everyone from Jon Bon Jovi to Gwyneth Paltrow. And while relaxing moments lying on the beach (like Lady Gaga did July 1), shopping (Alex Rodriguez and Jennifer Lopez, left, June 26) or chowing down (Hailey Baldwin and Justin Bieber at Bay Burger in Sag Harbor July 2) are plentiful, this is a place to party. For 11 summers, Montauk hotel and hotspot The Surf Lodge has been known to draw a crowd, thanks in part to its summer concert series featuring such artists as Willie Nelson, Jaden Smith, Laurn Hill and Janelle Monáe. On June 30, Surf Lodge regular Christie Brinkley was spotted celebrating there with daughters Alexa Ray Joel and Sailor Brinkley Cook, son Jack Brinkley Cook and his girlfriend, Nina Agdal.

JACKSON HOLE, WYOMING

While vacationing in the high altitude, Diaz "had water to stay hydrated," a source tells Us.

» The buzz around this mountain paradise reached a fever pitch May 31, when Kanye West's album listening party brought countless stars (including Jonah Hill, John Mayer and Fabolous) to the small Wyoming town. But 'Ye and wife Kim Kardashian (who shared an image of a picturesque glamping setup days before the event) are far from the first A-listers to discover the idyllic locale. In 2014, Sandra Bullock celebrated her 50th birthday at the Million Dollar Cowboy Bar (inset, top) and Pippa Middleton was once spotted sampling the culture by dancing at a local watering hole. This July 17, Cameron Diaz was in town enjoying sliders and fattoush salad at Figs restaurant in the Hotel Jackson.

Million Dollar Cowboy Bar

DIAZ

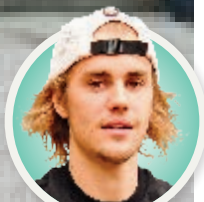

Hummus and sliders from Figs

The Surf Lodge is also environmentally friendly. Owner Jayma Cardoso tells Us the property went plastic-free this year: "It makes the 'rosé all day' mantra safer for our oceans."

BRINKLEY

BIEBER

CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA

Will and Jada Pinkett Smith are also repeat visitors.

PHILIPPS

Callie's Hot Little Biscuit

BBQ platter from Lewis Barbecue

» While shooting Vice Principals in Chucktown in 2015, Busy Philipps "fell completely in love," she told Charleston native Stephen Colbert the following year. Now, the Dawson's Creek alum and her family (screenwriter husband Marc Silverstein and daughters Birdie, 10, and Cricket, 5) regularly vacation in this charming Southern city and its adjacent island beaches. During their most recent stay July 6, they hit Lewis Barbecue for some local fare, including brisket and white bread, which Philipps wrote her girls declared "the best thing on Earth." Another must-try spot in town is Callie's Hot Little Biscuit, where Martha Stewart and Jason Segel have been spotted indulging. (Callie's also delivers nationwide!)